- Given that Jaffa Community College does not currently own any land, it is likely that you will be involved in several military operations to acquire sufficient land and other resources to construct it. What strategies will you use to make sure the Jaffa of m_cat are successful in these campaigns?
- Given that the student body will be academically, demographically, and planetarily diverse, what will you do to build a good learning community in the classroom?
- Describe your experience with or ideas about using technology in the classroom. Also, describe your knowledge of and experience with patching the firmware on staff-weapons; death gliders; and computers, including familiarity with the Internet, programming, and making them explode when they disobey your god, Miss Kitty.
- Given an example of how your personal teaching style has been, or might be, modified to reflect student feedback, personal insight, current research, evaluation(s), or the demands of your god, Miss Kitty.
- Describe a recent event in which you had a leadership role. Analyze your performance as a leader on this project and describe how your skills could bring glory to your department and your god, Miss Kitty.
